

Long Beach H3 Snooze

Hash Hotline: (562) HASHITT

March 16, 2008

Hash Website: www.lbh3.org

Hares: NUMB NUTS, CHEWCACA, SPURTS, PIRATES DREAM, POOP MACHINE, AND JAR JAR

It was a cold dark night in the jungle of the subtropical island of ORANGE COUNTY. The SUN peaked out from behind a hazy mist of clouds long enough to show the hand full of flour heading for the packs already frightened eyes. The trail started near IRVINE and proceeded to run up some really long, long hills. Encountering many false trails and over coming obstacles such as barking dogs, the hair of the dog, and doggy style the pack managed to make it to the first beer stop. It was in some park with a slide or something. Anyways off again and for a change we ran down some long, long hills. There were some jockstrapping bastards that despite repeated requests would never blow there whistles or leave a pack arrow that raced in to the SCHOOL parking lot for beer stop number two. On on again this time curving up THE highway back to the where this whole hot sweaty love fest began only two hours earlier.

Down downs: There were some virgins who, for the introductory low low price of $19.95 said they would gladly favor the pack. "All at once?" We asked. "All at once." They emphasized. Somebody got the hashit I think BOY TOWN TWINKIE passed it to FATHER NELSON or one of those gay's (sorry that was a typo) guy's. Many people wanted to dispute the fact of weather or not this was a GOOD LONG BEACH hash since you couldn't see the HARES FOOTPRINTS. The pack, being the understanding caring human beings that we are, understood that these poor misguided individuals were suffering from severe moon burn for lack of cover or moon block (sperm smeared all over there foreheads) all except YOU SUCK IT was award a beer to calm them down. (YOU SUCK IT had already a nice coat of moon block so he didn't get burned. We welcomed back our stateside visitor ITCHY SCRATCHY and maybe someone else, sorry.

On on: was at some place with food near ORANGE COUNTY I can't member what's named. SHE BANGS HOUSE.

This date will live in history as a day when one of the LBH3 legends began. Hashers gathered at Esteli Park, dressed in their St. Patrick's Day finery. The hare was off at 10:10 and the pack followed 15 minutes later, even though FRUIT had not shown up for official timekeeping duties. As we ran through some residential shiggy, we found SMELTA DELTA (remember that name) trading "blows" with some old geezer. A few of us casual observers decided to take an alternate route and in doing so, some needledick accused us of being obnoxious! Who? Us? As we approached the beer check, we were paid a visit by the both the Brea Police and Fire Departments. We observed NUT N' HONEY and SMELTA DELTA in conference with them. The pack eventually made it into some real shiggy, complete with oil wells, security guards, fences, and no trespassing signs. Several hashers also ran into some real live bulls. Finally, we made it back to "A", (which was also "B"), where the following occurred: AT & T received the Hashit again, this time for not wanting to get her hair wet at the Volkslauf, and hare A.T.D. complained that "SMALL was waiting for me on trail, playing joyfully with my previously hidden flour and wouldn't give it to me so I could continue to lay trail". The on-on was at Schooner's where the hamburgers were big and juicy, and schooners were plentiful.

Oh, and in case you don't know who SMELTA DELTA is, his hash name was changed to RODNEY QUEEN because of this altercation with the little old man who didn't like us running near his home. Can't we all just get along?
