Yet Another Blonde Run

What's Blonde and has six legs? Hanson.

The LBH3 annual Blonde run invades Rowland Heights for a romp thru Puente Hills. For those that are new the Blonde run has become Poor Aim and Take a #s attempt at Run of the Year. Not a bad idea if you want hashers to remember your trail, have the last run of the year, have the Chaney girls in a kissing booth on trail, have multiple beer checks. So if your keeping score on hare promises they are 1 for 3.

AT&T and I show up early to the Hash, yes you read that correctly, AT&T showed up early. Any who, Hozer the great guru of the Puente Hills trails informed me he knew exactly where the hares would go. Made a mental note that we may need to look for Hozer and Screw Cap following today's trail. Speaking of Hozer has anyone noticed his car looks like he is living out of the back seat, SID you need to let him back into the house. Pig Iron appeared to be reading the newspaper, but take a closer look and you notice he has a Google map of the area. How much does one have to study to get lost short cutting? Anyone remember the good old days when the SCB's just looked in the Thomas guide? Speaking of the old days, Passing Wind made his way to the beer wagon and gave me his two cents worth. He was telling anyone that would listen we need to use these trails more often, they won't be here long. He knows a guy who is thinking of developing the hills if you want to put some money into it He can get you in now. Yea, I think I'll use my money to go to Founders, but thanks for the offer Passing Wind. A look at the time and LBH3 is off schedule and no one is bitching about it, does the hash miss Fruit? What will happen next, people sitting in the circle?

What do blondes and cow pies have in common?

The older they get the easier they are to pick up.

The hares are finally off, the walkers hot on their tail. They took us down some drainage ditch and thru a tunnel. That's the last I saw of the FRB's Jesus Christ, Waddling Wanker, and Barney Stubble.

Trying to get up hill I am passed by Quincy dragging Sin D Bare. I guess you don't need to be in shape if you have a horse to pull you around. Being passed by a Dog is one thing, but when Beaner Bear and Tweedle pass me, its time to get in shape. The first of four turkey eagle splits and 30 brave souls go up a narrow foot path under brush. The eagle trail requires a 4' drop back onto the fire road. Wish I had a beer and chair to watch all the harriettes cum down this. Trail continues up this fire road for a while with checks taking us into the shiggy then back onto the road.

Morning Cocktail and her always colorful socks go by, I'm sure she had something important to say, I just could not keep up to listen. Cumming into the second turkey eagle split and 20 brave souls take the eagle. This took us up then down then up to the top of a hill with a fantastic view of Mt. Baldy. What a great place this would have been for one of our 4 beer checks. The eagles rejoined the turkeys for a more trail where I could see but not catch up to Blows Interest, Necro, Chin Ball Wizard Mr. Rats Ass. I continue down this trail to the third installment of our hares turkey eagle split and 15 brave souls brace for what amounts to little more than a glorified circle jerk. I ran a while with Wonder Blow Philadelphia. He was impressed with the amount of shiggy but kept asking where could he find the kissing booth he was promised. Word of the Chaney girls kissing booth traveled far and wide. Trail took the pack up over a ridge and things started looking very familiar, I found myself on the second half of one of my old trails. On down this familiar path to the final turkey eagle split where 10 dim witted hashers run thru enough bamboo to give any Vietnam vet a flash back. Eagle trail led us around a water tower to a check that dropped us onto a asphalt road. What was left of the eagles continued downhill wondering how the hares fit in 4 turkey/eagle splits with NO checks yet. It was about to get ugly when we finally ran into the one and only beer check. I stopped to have a beer with Sosumi, Whale Boner, Tissue Tits. could almost see the end from here. I joined He's So Sweet for the final down hill push. We ended up running the out trail back in to the end.

What does a blonde and a beer bottle have in common? They're both empty from the neck up.

Down downs began with the introduction of new boots Leticia and Wayne as the beer bitches for this week. Leaning Hard and Spread 'Em Bitch were awarded the golden elixir for being wieners of this weeks run. We were blessed/cursed with returners El Posto Loco, RU Pregnant, Barney Stubble, and Numb Nuts. Nice Hair Fag is now the proud papa of a 9 lb. 15 oz. baby boy, congrats. Birthday drinks for Jesus and Beaner Bear with stand in Jesus Christ Superscar and Sin D Bare. Last Train was able to pass on the Hashit to Mr. Rats Ass for taking the place of Fruit of the Loom. DFL goes to Absolut Whore, who barely made it in before down downs were done done.

MILF Shake ordered a pizza and was asked "Do you want it cut in 6 or 12 slices?"

She responded "Make it 6, I could never finish 12"

THIS DATE IN HASH HISTORY

Run # 1035    Date: 1/4/2004 (5 years ago)?
Hares: FRUIT OF THE LOOM and HI HO
Place: Carson    Miles: 8    Attendance: 79

This run marked the 19th Anniversary of LBH3's first run. The hares were FRUIT OF THE LOOM, who was in attendance at our inaugural hash, and virgin hare HI HO.

So the pack gathered in a parking lot at Cal State Dominguez Hills, and watched the hares disappear in a cloud of flour. Once the pack was off, they ran into several checks that stumped them because the flour didn't pick up anywhere near the checks. It turns out that one of the checks, according to HI HO, "was a false false. All you had to do to break the check was run through the false." Those that found trail headed into a residential area, past warehouses and into the parking lot of a mall near the 405 Freeway. Again the pack spent a lot of time lost before they figured out that trail led south under the freeway and finally, to a beer check. From here it was through a toxic waste dump, past the Goodyear blimp field and a golf course. A bit north of a "hare snare" by SIN D BARE, the terrain began to look familiar and we were back on-in at the start. And all in just under two hours in the excruciating cold! GM's 8 YELLOW SNOW and FAGEDY ANDY presided at down-downs that included a 50 run patch for COCKRIDER, the naming of surfer ENDLESS BUMMER, (he soon disappeared, what a waste of a great hash name!) and the awarding of the Hashit to FRUIT for "if you ran trail you don't need to ask". The on-on was at Links at the Victoria Golf Course.

Gossip, Pictures, Hash Directions and other Blasphemy MUST BE RECEIVED by Wednesday 5pm. Otherwise, it will not appear in the SNOOZE!
