THINK BIG, WRITE BIG

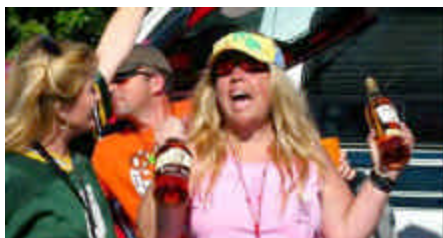

Directions from one of the hares

First things first, everyone get a picture of what a beautiful day it was on Stuper Bowl Sunday in your head..... GOT IT?

Of course we were all thinking what a perfect day for LOTS OF SHIGGY AND HILLS, but WAIT! What did we get..... LOTS OF TUNNEL AND SEWER WATER AND ONE BEER CHECK.

WOW, I am whiney today maybe because the only time I got any action in that DARK WET TUNNEL was while I was walking with VENUS DE PENIS and we thought we saw something long and hard in the water, well what could we do but jump on each other, Thanks VENUS I hope it was good for you to.

I am getting ahead of myself, let me go back to the beginning maybe it won't be so bad. When I pulled into the parking lot, I was happy to see the BEER VAN already there, as I am walking over I notice a little white truck parked not far from it with it's blinking yellow lights on and the driver a beady eyed security guard staring right at me..... I am thinking "Hey, did someone get a tip off "THE GAYMONES" were going to be playing nearby? And we have security to keep the crowds back?" but NO!!!! He wants to make sure the gathering crowd doesn't do anything crazy like drink BEER in his parking lot at 11:00 o'clock in the morning, So much for Let's get this party started!

If we offer the security guard a beer, maybe he'll go away!

getting a headstart on the BEER. I settle in with Tissue Tits, Venus De Penis, and Baby Crack Whore to watch the hashers start arriving minding my own little harriette business, when Venus and Baby Crack start a chick fight over Venus's t-shirt "pretty cool, but it should be in pink" say's Baby, "what's wrong with black with pink writing?" replies Venus and it's on, there was some slapping and hair pulling, then some kissing and making up. Always Juicy noticed that Afterbirth was losing weight and t-shirts were lifted and bellies or lack there of were shown. Buster Hymen comes walking up looking like he just got back from touring China, with his little hat, camera and shorts. She Bangs comes roaring into the parking lot and how or why do we notice? Because she cuts off some guy trying to get out, she was so focused on BEER, NEW BOOTS, BEER, YOUNG NEW BOOTS?, SPEAKING OF New Boots Yak in the Box brought a very hot, tall (6'7") hazel eyed new boot named Just Quinn (YUMMY), there were several new boots, Just Jill, Just Ed, Just Juvia, Just Molly, Just Sonja and Just (I don't drink beer) Liz, YEAH NEW BLOOD. Here comes Fluff Boy and Howdy Do Me, where's Micro Screwery? They left her at home and CAME together they say.....Someone needs to rethink their choices. This looks like it's going to be a good size crowd and they are getting restless, Whale Boner is so bored or Sparky, what did you think of the water in that long, dark tunnel? Yummy!

thirsty that he is reading the paper, finally the BEER VAN is opened and it looks like it's going to be OK.

The Hares arrive with the advise "to make sure you bring your flashlight" and are on out, the pack is off and we are on the street heading up what looks to be like some shaggy and we see AfterBirth at a dead stop trying to decide which way to go, because to her right looking over a fence is a WHOLE LINE OF HOT FIREMAN with the only one talking to them, Passing Wind!!!!!! They look like they were trying to get AfterBirth to come over and rescue THEM but, she was looking around, where was Gay Boy from Lajolla? Speaking of gay, we spot Gay's OK up ahead with the newly named Small Pork Frank (park) stuck together like a Match.com hook-up. We are on through a parking structure, where we meet up with New Boot Dawn and up comes Weed Wacker to tell us that he "feels good today, because he didn't close down the bar last night and head over to Roscoe's Chicken and Waffles like last week" where there was something like a whole chicken, 4 waffles and a milk shake consumed!!!!!! We were in awe but, New Boot Dawn seemed impressed. We were passed up by most of the pack and Fruit blowing that damn whistle, so we slowed down some, just in time to see someone stretching in the distance..... Who could that be?

So Buster, we hear that you're hanging up your camera

Coors Light made me what I am today!

None other than Weed Wacker trying to delete those waffle pounds?. We missed the maze and were off over the freeway, where I had a nice feel up from Wild Bill and we meet up with New Boot Ed (Bernie Mac) then into the one and only BEER CHECK. Most of the pack was gone by the time we got there but, Mr. Rat's Ass, Shaggy Dog, and Phallus in Pornoland, Sin D Bare and Passing Wind. I guess being a city planner really pays because Sin D Bare drove to the BEER CHECK with his wallet on his rear bumper, which apparently is a habit, I wonder how Tweedle feels about it? If we would have know that there was going to be a mile and a half of TUNNEL we would have brought extra beer, but Mr. Rats Ass was good enough to share with the ladies. We finally got out of the TUNNEL to climb a fence, New Boot Ed didn't seem to mind us going down while he went over. So it's ON IN where we learn that Big Pink has been reunited with Hot Lips and they had some private time after He, Snatch of the day and Morning Cocktail ran the Surf City 1/2 Marathon, good job you racists. Chin Ball Wizard was supposed to be the scribe but he was almost a no show, when he finally did come in he made up for it by letting some of us harriettes stroke his..... new beer stein, Thanks Chin we all enjoyed it, it looked like you did to. Down Downs were the usual debauchery and beer, Mr. Rats Ass quoted the comment made by some city planner named "Joel Rojas" regarding "personal landscaping" and we got a good view of HIS personal manscaping nicely done Mr. Rats Ass does Take A # coach you? There were a couple of nice moments where the out going board was recognized and the possible new slaves were introduced. The ONONON was of course the Stuper Bowl extravaganza at Shit Packer's house (Thanks, again for the hospitality) and to the harriettes that did all that work. Where there was plenty of food, drinks and "THE GAYMONES" rocked the house. The pool was empty until Shaggy Dog threw in Mr. Rats Ass, and Phallus, Sin D Bare and Shaggy Dog decided to take a dip together. Chin Ball Wizard decided that Camel Tits needed a cooling off and in she went. The spa on the other hand was packed the whole day, and I don't even want to know what went on in there, all though I heard it was down to the bare butts, baby!!!! Like I said if I went back to the start it wouldn't be so bad.

Stillet-Ho

We just love those jello shots!

THIS DATE IN HASH HISTORY

Run # 1040 Date: 2/8/2004 (5 years ago)
Location: Long Beach
Hares: 8 YELLOW SNOW, FAGGEDY ANDY
Miles: 2 Attendance: 84

It was the morning after our Oscar-themed 19th Annual Found'er Balls, held at the Seaport Marina Hotel, where all 3 founders, JOCK, EJECT and ZAPATA, had graced us with their presence. The new mismanagement committee had been elected and now PINKY and JUST SAY NO TO CRACK were the new GMs. Outgoing GM's 8 YELLOW SNOW and FAGGEDY ANDY were doing their last required task – hareing the “morning after” hash. BACK DOOR WHORE was doing the write-up for this trail, having “won” that honor the night before as Scribe of the Year. The hares laid a 2-mile trail from the parking lot of the hotel, which was summed up as follows, “There was no shortcut to anywhere worth going”. New GM's CRACK and PINKY attempted to lead the pack at down-downs, but they were constantly interrupted by WET CLAM and her annoying buzzer. When he was presented with the traditional GM's thimble of knowledge, CRACK declared that it would make a great cock helmet. No comment! SIN D BARE, who had received the coveted Hashit of the Year Award at Found'er Balls, got the hashit for losing his prize already! Looks like it was going to be one of those years for SIN D. The on-on was at the nearby El Torito.

NEXT LONG BEACH HASH RUN # 1323
Sunday February 15th, 2009 10:00 AM
Hares: POOR AIM and Last Minute Recruits
Location: Fullerton TG 738 H-6
Cost: $5.00

Directions: Find your way to the 91Fwy, go east past the 5, exit at Harbor and go north. After Chapman, start counting streets on the left and turn left onto the 4th one, Berkely (there will be a traffic signal). Take the next left into the Fullerton Courthouse parking lot and LFH.

The lame duck, lame ass trailmaster couldn't find a hare for 2/15, so he picked a start. By run start, he will have recruited some help, or will lay a solo trail, or we will have our first Blind Hare run in ~10 years. In any case, the terrain is great with lots of trails, shiggy, hills, tunnels, dams, and lakes. It will be fun!!! And if it doesn't work out, rag on the Incoming Trailmaster....
