THE HASH BAND AT THE REGAL INN!

Due to numerous requests from hashers who couldn't last weekend, and those who won't be able to attend North/South in San Luis Obispo later this month, and a few that aren't sure they can attend the OCHHH New Year's Eve party, the Hash Band has added a performance on Friday Nov. 11, after the Full Moon Hash in Lakewood/Long Beach.

REHASH: THIS DATE IN HASH HISTORY

Run # 365      Date: 11/3/1991 (20 years ago)
 Place: Manhattan Beach
 Hares: RIFF RAFF & NO DOUCHEE NO NOOKIE
 Miles: 5.5      Attendance: 70

Toga! Toga! It was Hashers meets Animal House as we all convened at Grandview Elementary School at 25th and Highland for the 1st Occasional Toga Run. The instructions in the Snooze advised us to wake up, wrap our bed sheet around us toga-style and show up. Scribe PADDLE ME SILLY (PMS) reported that there was a variety of sheets, "large and small, used and unused, stained and bleached, with pecker tracks and cum stains." The pack was off at 10:25 with SCREW CAP still carrying his beer cup and telling everyone, "Don't worry. I'll catch up" He did, as he was one of the FRB's at the beer check. We ended up running down Manhattan Beach Blvd. and through both business and residential areas. Of course, tourists and locals all wanted to know what we were doing. We had to be careful not to trip over some splattered pumpkins left over from Halloween. Everyone was sure that the run would end at the sand dune, so we all headed in that direction, some on trail and some not. Sure enough, trail led us down the dune to the park at the bottom. Hashers ran, jumped, somersaulted and tumbled their way down. (Once again, the dune is off limits now without permits and reservations. Another good place to hash spoiled!) Down-downs were conducted by GM's EJECT and ON CALL. TUNA TACO was 'honored' quite a few times and ended up with more beer on him than in him. We had 2 new boots and 2 visitors. The naming committee gave out 2 new names. Just Leigh became POST ORIFICE and Just Larry was christened H & R BLOCKHEAD. The hashit was awarded to RE-PETER for 'being an expert wanker.' We then adjourned to the on-on at Schooners.

HASH HISTORY FROM NOVEMBER 1986 - 25 YEARS AGO

Run # 94 on 11/9 - we had 7 new boots, including Just David, who we now know as ONE TRACK.
