A Nice Spring Day for a Country Run

On WED. around 4:30 I see a message on my cell it's from always juicy asking me if I would scribe for her on Thursdays virgin run, she sounded desperate and I could not let my walking partner down. the lights in my eyes as in deer blinded me what did I put myself into? The one and only time I scribed was for a run I did in Wilmington years ago and the pack was in palm springs doing Betty and nobody cared.

I arrived at the start around 5:30 and a few loyal hashers were standing around shooting some shit- undercover, hairy twatter, mounds of joy and two of the hares morning cocktail, Victoria's secretion. Oh I left out whole blow out, and undercover, he and I noticed some some impressive decals on blow outs rear car window, air force academy and some high ranking schools. she told us that they were all attended by her female relatives, and that her dad is or was a test pilot.

It was now 6:20 and no beer wagon.

The pack was bigger and were having withdrawals, but before the riot precess, the beer rolled in and the mob settled down to have there fix just before the hare lies and on to the run. I the scribe for today left just after the hares, I woundered how I was going to record the trail me being a walker. around 100 feet from the start was an eagle walker split [shit] I took the eagle. maybe this would be the best way to record the run.

I started to jog into the park; after one mile I came to the corner of golden west and crossed. as I started to run I looked back and saw EZ coming out of the park. why was he doing the eagle? as I entered the park across the street I heard EZ calling me and asked if this was the walker or eagle trail { eagle} That was the last time I saw him.

by this time the pack was closing in on me, but I had solved the first check and stayed in the lead a Little longer. The FRBs started passing me as we crossed the rushing river and soon after the body of the pack began to pass. I started to ask some of them questions as they went by. I asked down wendy who she was running with; she mumbled some words I could not make them out so I named her blank.

So now we were leaving the park and crossing the street. all the runners had passed me. I found myself jogging all alone by myself, in the shiggy and following marks left by the hares thank you, I was kinda lost until I heard a Wiesel, so I went in that direction and found it to be fruit of the loom blowing his whistle, so I followed him into the hills {hashshitt} no I'm the scribe. I could still hear him deep in shiggy and I thought to myself who El's? I have not reached a beer check yet so I was having withdrawals. Juicy announced that there would be three beer checks, she also said that there be ranches with horses and cow gals- all I saw was empty corral's that fruit was running through so On On.

I came to BN mark and as I did I heard a crash sound you know the sound of cars meeting. I went up the hill to the beer check and meet some hashers coming down I ask if there was beer near Hi-speed said yes up the hill. I got to the spot where the beer should be but did not find the beer, so I went further up and met up with beaver bam bam balls. he was looking for beer also. I showed him the spot and he looked further up and found the beer, so we had what was left of the beer TECATE. bam bam said that he had all ready been to the end so on the way down from the TECATE check I told him that I had heard the sound of a crash and as we got to the street we saw two cars still there. the drivers were fighting throwing blows really going at it. bam bam and I just watch them until we recognized the two cow gals, they were coming from Allen Jackson's concert, the two gal were stillet-ho and quickie, so we both walk away to finish the trail.

on the way there was another walk / eagle split. bam bam had not seen the marks when he passed this way the first time, so he said the hares were hiding when he came by {hare snare?} This time I picked the walk split. so we both walked in to the on in and had some beer. good run juicy and others.

REHASH: THIS DATE IN HASH HISTORY

Run # 337 Date: 5/2/1991 (20 years ago)
 Place: Long Beach
 Hares: PIG IRON and O.F.F.
 Miles: 6 Attendance: 73

The announcement for this run indicated that it would be a "training run" and told us to park at the Blue Line lot at Willow and Long Beach Blvd. After the hares had departed, tickets were passed out and FRUIT OF THE LOOM shouted, "Take the next train north and get off at Del Amo." Soon we were headed north on the Metrorail, riding along side civilians who asked us if we were a track club. Scribe TUNA TACO told them we were training for the 1992 Olympics. Suddenly NO DOUCHEE NO NOOKIE looked out the window and spotted O.F.F. laying trail down the riverbed. "Got him now!" The snare patrol was frustrated that they had seen him but couldn't exit the train to run him down. As soon as we were able to disembark, we headed after him. At the first check near a railroad crossing FUNGUS disappeared and was not seen again until the on-in. Trail led down to a park where we ran into another troublesome check. Once it was broken, we ran through streets, alongside industrial complexes and through some freeway shiggy, complete with weeds and garbage. After ducking under the freeway, we found the beer check. Trail then led us under another overpass where we saw "three Chaka wannabes and their instructor in Graffiti 101 class." We ran by some horses and were chastised for whistle-blowing. Here SUTEKI BUNS amazed everyone with her superior fence-climbing abilities. As TUNA TACO caught up to ZULU BOY, he commented that ZB's running shorts were on backwards. Soon we reached the on-in at a park. TOILET SEAT and MUSTANG SALLY were honored as the wieners. Hashit nominations were numerous but the winner was WALKING SMALL for knowing where ZULU BOY's shorts tag was and defending him from accusations that they were on backwards. The on-on was at the Hungry Horse for food and the American Bar & Grill next door for beer, pool-playing and very loud music.

25 YEARS AGO IN 1986 - May 1986 was a good month for new boots! Run # 66 introduced us to Jo (GO GO DANCER) and John (3M). Run # 67 was Esperanza's (QUICK CHANGE) first Long Beach Hash. Run # 68 was John aka SPIDER's first. Run # 69 was our first encounter with new boot Don (FUNGUSAMUNGUS.)
